

Athletes Profile

Stephen Vear Basketball

Club: Leicester Riders

D.O.B: 16.03.83

Stephen came to the college in 1999 from Hampton Community College and was a member of the basketball team. He started the sport age 6, taking it up more seriously at 14.

He went on to study Sports Science at Kingston University and was part of their Talented Athletes Scholarship Scheme. He was part of the GB Commonwealth Games team in 2006 and he represented England in the U-20 squad. He played semi-professionally for London United and Reading Rockets, before moving to the Leicester Riders in January 2008.

He has now been appointed Head Coach of the Kingston University Ladies Team and is an Assistant Coach for the English Universities Team competing in the Home Nations Tournament.

Every summer Stephen coaches at NBA star Luol Deng's basketball camp.

