

Athletes Profile

Claire Allan Rugby

Club: Saracens

D.O.B: 07.05.85

Claire came to RuTC in 2001 from Orleans Park School, Twickenham and studied AS/A2 Levels in PE and Business.

As well as being a qualified fitness instructor and police officer, she now plays for Saracens Women's Club. She has made her way up through the RFUW player pathway system representing England Academy, England Under 19s, England Sevens and in 2007 made her debut for the England A team against Scotland.

She is now a regular starter for England, she helped them to reach the quarter finals of the first ever Women's Rugby World Cup Sevens held in Dubai in March 2009. The team went on to win the Women's Plate, with Australia winning the cup.

Richmond upon Thames College