

Athletes Profile

Joseph Marler Rugby

Club: Harlequins
Under 20 England International

D.O.B: 07.07.90

Joe started his Rugby career at the age of 13 at Eastbourne Rugby club. He then moved in 2007 from Sussex side Haywards Heath to join the college's Advanced Apprenticeship in Sporting Excellence Programme and Harlequins Academy.

Joe was selected for the England U18 Six Nations squad for 2006/07 and went on to represent England at the U18 Six Nations in 2007/08, winning the Grand Slam at the tournament. He was chosen to captain the side against Wales, and later on the U18 tour of Argentina in 2008. Joe has now been called up to join the England Under 20's squad to compete in the Under 20 Six Nations, and in the IRB Junior World Championship in Japan later this season.

He joined the Harlequins Academy full time in June 2008, and made his first A league appearance against Wasps this season. He will be playing for National League Three side Worthing RFC this season.

Richmond upon Thames College