

Athletes Profile

Stuart Hayes Triathlon

D.O.B: 16.04.79

Stuart started competing in triathlons when he was 15. He was a member of Hounslow Swimming Club and was about to give up when he joined a local triathlon club, Thames Turbo. After he left college he moved to Loughborough to become a full time athlete.

In 2004 Stuart was ranked number 3 in the world and in 2005 he won the London Triathlon. He was eighth place in the 2007 World Championships and won the Corus Elite Race Series in the same year.

In 2008 he won the Malibu and Chicago Triathlons as well as the Mazda Blenheim Triathlon, came 2nd in the Gold Coast ITU Triathlon Oceana Cup and the New York Triathlon and third in the British Championships and London Triathlon.

Richmond upon Thames College